BRIDGE FUND HITS $4000

The relief fund appeal organised by Altona Mayor Cr. Doug Grant stands at about $4000 for the families of six local people killed and injured in the Westgate Bridge disaster.

This sum includes a total of $3084 collected by about 350 people, who took part in a door-knock of every Altona house on Sunday.

Cr. Grant said he was wonderfully pleased with the result, but expected the final figure raised would be far in excess of $4000.

"I have personally written to all local industries in the area, and am expecting at least another 30 replies," he said.

The sum raised to date includes bertonson Pty. Ltd., and a further a donation of $500 from R. J. Gil-$169 collected from the company's engineering workshops employees, as well as $100 from Australian Carbon Black.

Another substantial amount contributed prior to the door-knock was $118.45 from the staff and students of Altona North High School.

Donations received at the Altona civic offices on Monday included $50 from the Altona Paving Company, $25 from Felt and Textiles' rubber division, and $20 from the Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Cr. Grant said a committee had been set up for the purpose of distributing the fund.

Those killed in the Westgate disaster were:

Victor Gerada, Waters Drive, Altona; Edgar Frederick Upsdell, Ormawi Street, Altona; Jousef Ozelis, Cooper Avenue, North Altona; John Richard Grist, Bracken Road, Altona; and George Tshilious, Freeman Road, North Altona.

Injured was Peter Mercla of Kookaburra Street, Altona.

All donations will be accepted at the Altona civic offices and will be acknowledged next week in the Star.

Five arrested over house breakings

Police have arrested five youths, aged between 15 and 19, three of whom are still at school, in connection with seven housebreakings in the Altona North area.

THOMAS IS MLC

Sunshine councillor and A.L.P. candidate Bon Thomas has won the Legislative Council by-election for Melbourne West Province.

With only about 50 or 60 votes to be counted, Cr. Thomas has polled 67,512 and Mr. Raymond Nilsen of the Defence of Government Schools group 32,732.

The informal vote to date is 7572 and 107,826 votes have been counted.

Cr. Thomas 58, has been on Sunshine Council for 10 years and has twice been mayor.

He lives in Derrimut Street, Albion.

He and his wife Winnie have four children and two grandchildren.

The election was held to fill the seat vacated by Mr. Ron "Bunna" Walsh, when he was ousted over a 1950 Children's Court conviction.

Constable Peter Gill of Footscray CIB said the arrests were made after Altona constables Neville Little and Brian Sharp had apprehended a youth in a car.

"This was after a report had been received that the youth was brandishing a shot gun," Detective Gill said.

"The youth admitted the shot gun was stolen and this led to the arrest of the other youths and the recovery of about a quarter of the stolen property."

It is understood most of the house breakings occurred in the Blackshaws Road - Millers Road areas.

Four Youths aged between 15 and 16 are due to appear in the Children's Court early next month.

WATCH THOSE TAGGED FISH

—they're worth 40

The Director of the Fisheries and Wildlife Department, Mr. A. Dunbavin Butcher announced today that research teams in his department will be releasing 1500 tagged flat-head in Port Phillip Bay this week.

Sand flathead, longnose flathead and tiger flathead will be tagged as part of a study designed to investigate the migration and growth characteristics of some of the local species.

The tags are anchored in the back muscles of the fish and consist of an external streamer made of orange cylindrical plastic which bears a number and an inscription reading "Reward Fish & Wild Melb., Date, Place, Length."

A reward of 40 cents will be paid for the return of each tag accompanied by a statement of the date of capture, the area where caught and the length of the fish. The "place" should be described as accurately as possible and the length (from snout to tip of the tail) measured to the nearest one-tenth inch or the nearest, millimetre.

Mr. Butcher also said that he hopes that, when practicable, the fish themselves may be forwarded to the Fisheries and Wildlife marine fish laboratory at 605 Flinders Street Extension to enable a detailed biological analysis to be carried out.

THE CUP:

Lancelot is good value

at 12/1 Say the trainers

If a "smokey" is to get up in the Melbourne Cup it could be Lancelot (12/1) according to trainers interviewed by The Altona Star yesterday.

Two of five trainers nominated Lancelot as their best bet, but perhaps even more significant is that three of them nominated 14/1 chance Vansittart as the best outsider.

Both Les Cole and Ray Hutchins thought Lancelot would bring home the 'bikkies.' "Colin Hayes has prepared him specially

... and the 'hoops' say

Voleur is the 'hoops' pick

Favorite Voleur, quoted at 3/1 in latest Melbourne Cup markets, is the jockeys' pick to take off Australia's richest race at Flemington next Tuesday.

Of six jockeys interviewed by The Star yesterday, two, including Alan Trevena, who lost the ride on Voleur to Jim Johnson, felt that Voleur was the horse to beat.

But just how open a Cup field it is was indicated by the jockeys' selection as the best outsider to trouble Voleur. Each picked a different horse to come in at long odds.

"I haven't got a ride at the moment, but I would pick Voleur if I had the chance," Trevena said. He gave his best outsider as Mr. President (quoted at 25/1).

Trevena's preference for Mr. President is backed up by Ray Setches, who rode the horse to a slashing Moonee Valley Cup win last Saturday.

Setches, who has the ride on 14/1 chance Vansittart, said: "I only wish I could be riding both of them." He gave his best outsider as three-year-old Peter's Empire (33/1).

Top jockey Roy Higgins, who has the pick of the horses from the powerful Bart Cummings stable, said he would not decide which horse to ride until after Saturday's racing and therefore was not prepared to make a selection.

However he nominated Regal Jane (10/1) as a possible best outsider.

Brian Gilders, who rode Beer Street (14/1) to an impressive victory in the Caulfield Cup, has the same ride in the Melbourne Cup and "is hoping for the best".

Pressed into making another selection he went for Arctic Symbol (8/1) as the hardest to beat with Baghdad Note (12/1) as the best outsider.

Veteran Billy Smith, still without a ride in this year's Cup, also thought Voleur would be the horse to beat.

Paul Jarman said he was hoping to be on a winner in 14/1 chance Sundale and gave Not Again (20/1) "after it's good Moonee Valley run" as his best outsider.

for the Cup," Les Cole said.

Hutchins said he felt the bigger Flemington track would suit Lancelot.

Cole's best outsider was Sundale, while Hutchins nominated Vansittart.

Also Vansittart supporters as the best outsider were Ray Chapman and Maurie Willmott, but they both differed as to which horse they thought would win the Cup.

Chapman said he likes Voleur "in a very open field," while Willmott rated Arctic Symbol (8/1) as the top chance.

"Arctic Symbol is a proven two-miler and a very good weight for age performer, and good weight for age horses have a very good record in previous Cups," Willmott said.

Bart Cummings, who perhaps holds the key to the Cup was not available, but his foreman Ron McDonald outlined the stable's thinking on the four horses they have engaged — Voleur, Gay Poss, Moomba Fox and Tavel.

He said that Voleur, which is to run in the McKinnon Stakes on Saturday, was the stable elect, but both Tavel and Gay Poss were possibilities.

"If Gay Poss happens to strike form she will be very hard to beat, and the same applies to Tavel," he said.

If an outsider was to win McDonald said, he felt it could be Moomba Fox, while he nominated Tails (10/1) as the hardest to beat.

APC to meet council on noise levels

Altona council is to meet the Altona Petrochemical Company at its next general purposes committee meeting to discuss a survey of noise levels taken by the company.

This was decided at the last meeting on a motion by Cr. Harry Weaver after a letter from the company was tabled before council.

The company said it did not want to make the results public because of the "considerable experience and expertise necessary for the mapping of an acoustical survey and the evaluation of the results."

Members of the three Altona Service clubs and their womenfolk got together at a dinner in the Koorngal golf club-rooms recently.

Members of the three clubs are working together to raise money to improve facilities at the Altona district hospital.

The combined dinner was addressed by Judge Gordon Just, of the County Court, who spoke on legal experiences and procedures.

COLTS TO MOVE

Williamstown Colts Cricket Club will move from Market Reserve to Strand Reserve to use the matting wicket there.

Williamstown Council granted permission at last week's meeting for the matting side of the club to change reserves.

Newport Cricket Club, which used the matting wicket before, has transferred to the Digman Reserve.

173 NELSON PLACE,
WILLIAMSTOWN

Telephone: 397 7420.

It is a great honor to have one of the municipality's parks named after you, and an honor that ex-mayor of Williamstown, Peter Sadler, is happy to accept.

Mr. Sadler retired from the council last August after 10 years with the council.

It was decided at last week's council meeting that Centenary Park would now be known as the P. G. Sadler Reserve. It is the council's policy to name parks and reserves after councillors when they had served at least 10 years with the council.

Mr. Sadler was mayor of the city in 1964-65, and said he found it a wonderful, though exacting experience.

He retired from the council because he found that his business and family commitments had become too great for him to give as much time to the council as he wanted to.

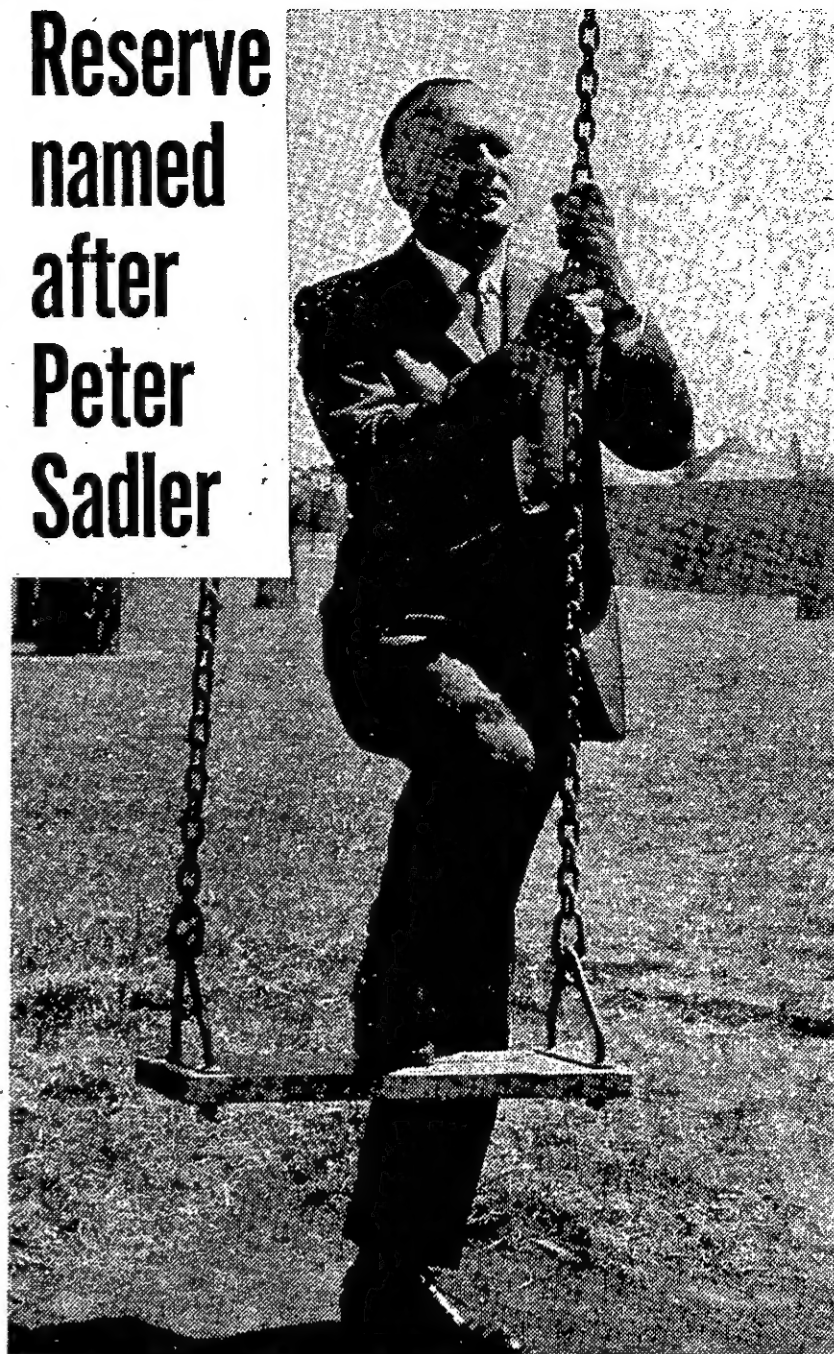

Mr. Sadler was most surprised when the Advertiser told him last week that Centenary Park was to be named after him. He had known that the council was considering naming a park or reserve in remembrance of his term as a councillor, but he had not known that they had already made a decision.

The council decided that Centenary Park would be an appropriate reserve to re-name, as the history of its name was not directly connected with Williamstown history. It had been named in commemoration of the first landing at Portland in the 1830s.

Mr. Sadler first came to Williamstown during the last war, and hopes that the quiet, old-world charm of the city will never change.

But whether Williamstown changes or not, residents now have a recreation area in the city to remember one of their most popular councillors by.

Reserve named after Peter Sadler

Mr. Peter Sadler, former mayor of Williamstown, tests the swings at the P. G. Sadler Reserve. The reserve, formerly known as Centenary Park, was renamed in honor of Mr. Sadler's work for the city.

Drunk driver fined $125

A Newport man who had a breathalyser reading of .250 (equivalent to 17 seven ounce glasses) was convicted of four driving charges when he faced Mr. J. R. Aitken, SM at Footscray Court last Thursday.

Police said the man admitted that he had probably had 20 beers prior to an accident.

Thomas Richard Buckland, 44, clerk, of 479 Williams-town Road, Newport, pleaded not guilty to charges of having driven under the influence, exceeding .05, failing to give way to oncoming traffic and careless driving.

Mr. J. R. Aitken SM fined Buckland $125 and disqualified him from holding a licence for 12 months on the charge of driving under the influence.

All other charges were adjourned to a date to be fixed, not exceeding three months.

Leslie Wilson Maddern, operator, of 7 Harry Street, Maidstone told the court he was travelling south-west in Geelong Road (towards Geelong) at 10.25 p.m. on the night of August 1.

He said the lights were green for him as he approached the Barkly Street intersection, but as he proceeded to cross the intersection, a Holden coming in the opposite direction made a right hand turn in front of him.

"I applied the brakes, but skidded and collided with the car," Maddern said.

He said Buckland gave him his name, but gave him several addresses and he was not able to get the correct one.

Maddern said Buckland was "waving" on the footpath and his breath smelt strongly of alcohol. "His eyes were glassy," he said.

John Alan Hitchen, printer of Hawthorn said he was parked behind Buckland's car in Geelong Road, waiting to do a right hand turn.

He said Buckland stopped at the intersection while an oncoming car was about 200 yards away.

"When this oncoming car was almost at the intersection Buckland moved off slowly to complete his turn, colliding with the other car."

Constable Robert Grant (Williamstown) told the court Buckland was unsteady on his feet and his Admitted 20 beers before accident, court told clothing was slightly disarranged when he saw him at the scene of the accident.

He said Buckland told him in an interview at the police station that he had been drinking from 7.30 a.m. until a quarter of an hour before the accident.

"A breathalyser test showed Buckland has a reading of .250 which is equivalent to 17 seven ounce glasses, but Buckland replied that he had probably had more than that," Constable Grant said.

Buckland told the court he stopped at the intersection but proceeded across because he thought the other car would stop and give way.

"The other car got there quicker than I estimated," he said.

Buckland said he was stunned by the accident. "I must have looked like a zombie," he said.

He admitted that he would have had about 20 beers over the period of the whole day, "but I still think I was capable of driving," he said.

Mr. Aitken, in fining Buckland, said he was satisfied Buckland's judgment had been affected by liquor and that he had failed to give way, which constituted careless driving.

Mr. Aitken fined Buckland $125 and ordered him to pay $24 costs. He disqualified him from holding a licence for 12 months.

BROOKLYN WEST NAME CHANGE?

"There's been an approach from Brooklyn West Primary School to change their name to 'Altona Gate', and this should be given consideration when considering any deputation," Altona Mayor Cr. Doug Grant said at the meeting last week. Cr. Grant was speaking on a council deputation with the Government place names committee concerning the naming of the Altona Meadows estate.

The deputation was to be heard last Thursday at 11 a.m.

Brooklyn West principal Mr. E. L. Mitchell said last week there had been no official move to change the name of the school.

"There is consideration being given to changing the name," he said.

Mr. Mitchell said the Altona council had asked the school's junior councillors to think of a new name for the school and then report back to the next junior council meeting.

He said the reason for any name change would be that while the school was called Brooklyn West, this was considered a "misnomer" because it was actually in the Altona City area.

RENT FOR SPORTING GROUNDS MAY RISE

The cost of renting sports grounds from Williamstown Council may increase by one-third from April 1 next year.

The council's Reserves, Foreshores and Properties Committee recommended the increase at last week's council meeting, but council voted closely to support an amendment from Cr. F. W. Jarrad that the matter be referred back to the committee.

Cr. Jarrad said that he objected to the increases because they would affect some sporting clubs more than others. Junior clubs would not be able to afford more rent as easily as seniors.

Cr. H. W. Clancy, speaking for the increases, said that clubs in Williamstown were not paying much rent compared with clubs in some other municipalities.

Williamstown's Mayor, Cr. J. M. Byron, speaking on the issue after the meeting, said that the council would have to look at the whole question of parklands and sporting clubs.

A 'blanket' increase of one third in rental rates was no good because it would not help those clubs which needed help, he said.

"I want to see hundreds of juniors playing sport", he said. "We should help the clubs which help the children."

Older people could pay for what they used, he continued, but children couldn't, and the council should be helping children to participate in sport.

People duped on gas refill—Cr.

Altona councillor Pat Lynch said he felt people who have gas barbecues were being duped because gas refill bottles did not have a gauge on them.

"There should be a gauge on the bottles to show whether they are empty, half full or full," he said at the last council meeting.

His motion that the item be placed on the next agenda of the Western Suburbs Municipal Association had to be withdrawn because there was no second.

But Cr. Charlie Carisson moved successfully that the weights and measures branch of the State Health Department be asked for a report on the matter.

'KEEP CLEAR' OF GARAGE

Williamstown Council will paint a "Keep Clear" sign on the road in Jobson Street, Williamstown, so that a local resident will be able to use his garage.

Mr. A. J. Fowler, of 162 Ferguson Street, wrote to the council last month complaining that he had a problem using his garage, which faced Jobson Street, because cars were often parked opposite the entrance.

Hard work pays off for tech. school band

To the average person the high standard of Williamstown Technical School's 40-piece band (pictured above) is surprising.

To band-master Richard Slade, the standard is not a surprise at all.

He puts it down to the unceasing enthusiasm and hard work of the 12 to 17-year-old boys who rehearse each lunch time.

Mr. Slade said the band was playing at a semi-professional standard and was nearing professional standard. Some of the boys already played professionally.

Packed house

The band's concert in a packed school assembly hall last Wednesday was so successful that it was asked for a repeat performance.

Mayor of Williamstown, Cr. J. Byron, said it was not long ago people thought of technical schools as places for metal workers or blacksmiths with little interests in music.

Now music had made a great impact and played an important part in the school.

Cr. Byron said, "Mr. Slade deserves a pat on the back for the tremendous job he has done."

"The boys put on a marvellous performance," he said.

Mr. Slade started the band four years ago. He is a member of the CMF and of the Royal Australian Artillery Band.

News from the packs

The Third Williamstown Brownie Pack enjoyed a visit to The Strand to feed swans. The brownies are busy with handcraft work, sewing wool on hessian and modelling plasticine animals for a farm.

The Fifth Pack welcomes recruit Jenny Broucher. Six brownies completed Footpath Badges and Brownies are at present knitting squares for a rug which will be presented to Tweddle Baby Hospital before Christmas.

Third Guide Company welcomes recruit Linda Wilhems. Anslie Hannam has been enrolled. First eight point badge — Judy Black, Christine Hill, Robyn Pedley, Fiona Hannam, Anne Black, Aileen Humphries, Margaret Black, Marianne Wilhems, Susan Fleisher, Joy Grant. Queens Guide — Joy Grant.

The Company enjoyed a hike from Flinders Street Station to the Royal Melbourne Hospital to visit Lefty. The next meeting will be on Monday, November 2, at 1.30 p.m. in the Guide Hall, Peel Street, Newport.

SANDS AT NELSON GALLERY

The work of popular artist Leslie "Bill" Sands will be featured at an art show commencing on Sunday at the Nelson Gallery, 143 Nelson Place, Williamstown.

Formerly a resident of Williamstown, Mr. Sands now lives at Ringwood but makes frequent visits to his home town to find inspiration for his paintings.

A collection of 24 oil paintings and water colors will be on display for two weeks. As well as the weekend hours the gallery will be open in the evenings from 7.30 to 9 p.m.

Mr. A. Fowler will open the exhibition on Sunday at 3.30 p.m.

Boating and the sea are the subjects favored by Mr. Sands and this is not surprising as he was a well-known Williamstown yachtsman, and during World War II spent six years in the R.A.N.

This will be his second exhibition in Williamstown and his twelfth one-man show in Melbourne.

He has exhibited in galleries in Queensland and New South Wales, and one of his paintings has been purchased for the Commonwealth Collection in Canberra.

Mr. Sands is represented in collections in America and has won several art awards.

Mayoral couple at club dance

The Mayor and Mayor-elect of Altona, Cr. and Mrs. D. Grant were guests of honor at the Altona Elderly Citizens Club's monthly dance, held recently at their clubrooms.

On Monday October 19, the elderlies went on a bus trip, which took them to a lace factory in Dandenong, Chadstone shopping centre and a Kraft factory, where they were treated to afternoon tea.

The following week was a full one for the club.

Highlights of the week were: A visit from the chiro-podist, community singing with the Sunshine Club, slides shows and a viewing of some silent comedy.

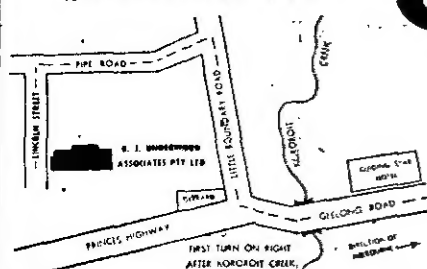

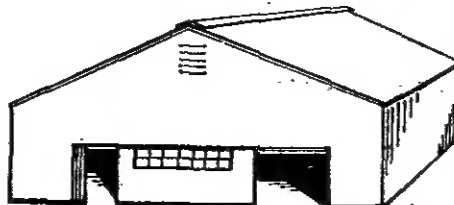

The group thanked Mr. Leach of the Sunshine Elderly Citizens for showing the film.

Last Thursday the club had a dinner and played games.

Many members were welcomed back at the meeting.

They were: Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Small, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Drysdale, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Pimpini and Mr. and Mrs. Heymes.

Club members hope that Mrs. McDonald of North Altona recovers soon and returns to the club.

Club to get face-lift

Williamstown Elderly Citizens' Club is planning to renovate its club building during the Christmas holidays.

The president of the club wrote to Williamstown Council asking for financial assistance and advice from the council's building inspector.

The club had obtained a quote of $391 for the interior painting, and was forming a working bee to paint the lounge room.

The letter said club members would not be able to paint the main hall themselves, as it was beyond their ability.

The council referred the matter to its Reserves Committee.

IT'S 'NO' AGAIN TO SHOWROOM

A clothing manufacturers' and wholesale showroom would soon be part of the Ferguson Street scene, if Mrs. D. McLean had her way.

An application from Mrs. McLean to use portion of the upper floor area of 61-65 Ferguson Street went before Williamstown Council last week.

This application was referred to the Planning Committee.

The council refused a similar application from Mrs. McLean in April this year.

Cr. P. T. Lalor told council the business would provide opportunities for Williamstown housewives to get clean jobs.

Cr. Byron, Mayor of Williamstown, said he was happy to have industry in the city, provided it was in the right area.

The previous permit application had been refused because the business was defined as light industry and the land was zoned for "local business".

Koorringal Golf

Results of the Koorringal golf clubs are as follows:

October 20 medal — stroke Medal, Mrs. N. Moran (25) 71 nett.

A division Mrs. R. Brighthope (22) 72 nett.

36 markets, Mrs. A. Jordan 76 nett.

Putting, Mrs. J. Grant 27 putts.

Cars are blocking garages

Cars parked illegally on the entry road to Creek Street, Spotswood have been causing trouble to local residents.

Creek Street gives the only access to several garages belonging to Hope Street residents.

Mr. Leo Mahar, of 79 Hope Street, wrote to Williamstown Council protesting about the situation.

It was particularly bad, he wrote, when functions were being held at the D. W. McLean Reserve.

Williamstown's Senior Traffic Officer recommended that Mr. Mahar should contact the police, or the council's Traffic Department the next time illegally parked cars were blocking access to his garage.

He also recommended the clubs using the D. W. McLean Reserve should provide parking attendants when holding functions that could cause traffic congestion near Creek Street.

Grass needs cutting

The Victorian Railways have agreed to Altona council's request to remove the cattle grid fencing and the top rail of white panel on the wing fences of the Millers Road level crossing at Seaholme, but one of the councillors is still not satisfied.

Cr. Harry Weaver moved successfully that the council write to the Railways asking them to also cut the long grass at the crossing.

The Railways letter said that as a result of the work carried out, it considered the view of approaching motorists, "satisfactory."

The teddy bear is dead, long live the electronic project kit

Remote control tanks are shooting arrows, dolls are dancing, talking and rocking baby dolls.

Plastic Fred Flintstones, magnetic drawing boards and toy dogs that walk, talk and wag their tails — it's all part of the fascinating world of children's toys.

Confronted by shelves and shelves of every type of toy to entice and fascinate, it is a wonder that today's children can ever make a decision.

Gone are the days when the traditional teddy bear was a child's main toy.

Now manufacturers are making toys that help children learn.

Blocks and counters teach young children balance and co-ordination, as well as elementary mathematics.

Electronic project kits teach older children the intricacies of electrical systems.

These electrical kits are so complex that the RAAF buys them to teach its recruits about signals and radar!

Television has changed children's taste in toys, although old favorites, like cowboy suits, are still in demand. According to one toy retailer, children now demand more mechanical — and more expensive — toys

Mr. Geoff Hope, who runs 'Ted the Toyman' in Barkly Street, said that television advertising created a demand for certain toys. He said whereas parents used to buy toys for the children, they are now told by the youngsters exactly what they want

Parents are buying more, and more expensive, toys.

But the oldtimers still say — 'We didn't need these fascinating toys, we used our imagination.'

Land for scout hall approved

Altona council has approved of land at the corner of Linnet and Rankin streets being set aside for a scout hall, camera club hall and a children's playground.

This was decided at council's last general purposes committee meeting after a report by Town Clerk, Mr. Jim Waters on the camera club's proposal for development of the land.

New flats for Verdon St.

A two-storey block of eight flats will be built at 68 Verdon Street, Williamstown.

Williamstown Council issued a building permit to the owners of the land — Mr. K. Ashton, of The Esplanade, Maribyrnong, at last week's council meeting.

Mr. Ashton has to make minor adjustments to car parking provisions and to the endorsement on the plan of landscaped garden areas, before the permit is issued.

Parents without partners meet

The Western branch meeting of Parents Without Partners will be held on Saturday, November 7, at 8 p.m.

The first annual ball held by Parents Without Partners was a huge success.

It took place at Carnegie Reception on October 16 and members from each of the Victorian branches were present.

The Sunday picnic recently held at Blackwood was also well attended.

There were barbecues as well as races and lollies for the children. Everyone who attended this picnic enjoyed the outing.

Enquiries about the association can be made by phoning 379 5150 or 379 4601.

New members are welcome.

Learn to use the camera

Photography is the ability to transmit an image onto film with the use of light, and how to use the light to the best advantage is one of the many techniques learned through being a member of a camera club.

Williamstown Camera Club meets on the first and third Thursdays in the Methodist Church Hall, Pascoe Street, at 7.30 p.m. and visitors are always welcome.

Main feature of the November meeting is a Colin Simpson travelogue.

Taylor steers Imps. to win

Spotswood Imperials batsman Robert Taylor completed a fine double when he scored 62 not out in his side's second innings of 4/136 to add to his 70 in the first innings against Newport ANA, in Williamstown, Altona, Footscray district cricket last Saturday.

Although six ANA players scored 20 runs or more they still failed to overhaul Imperials by seven runs on the first innings.

In VJCA C section, Altona's Joe Grassby with 34 to add to his first innings score of 60 not out, was the star performer.

Not far behind him was Newport Footballers' Peter Hutchinson who took 3/21 in Altona's second innings for match figures of 10/50.

In Under 16 bowlers were well on top with the star performer being Spotswood's John Powell who took 5/8 in Gellibrand's second innings to finish with match figures of 8/20.

Workingmen easily in bowls

Altona Workingmen's Club No. 1 pennant team notched a 67-shot win over Ascot Vale on Saturday.

The No. 2 match against Flemington was abandoned owing to the weather, while in bowls winning rinks were J. Tucker, W. Smith (5) 27-22; A. Warden, G. Currow (5) 28-19. The banker prize was won by G. Currow's rink.

Two games of eight rinks were played in social bowls on Sunday with all lady skippers, and winning rink was skipped by Betty Dutton, with J. Brown, V. Butler, A. Campbell.

First official visit to Altona Bowling Club takes place on Sunday and all attending are to place names on the notice board. A barbecue will follow bowls.

In ladies' bowls on Tuesday Altona lost by four shots to Footscray RSL.

On Saturday No. 1 team plays Footscray RSL and No. 4 team at Footscray. Players are to meet at the clubrooms at 1 p.m.

The No. 2 team is at home to Sunshine and players are to attend before 1.45.

Congratulations go to A. Molloy, B. Jackson and F. Charlton on receiving their Australian Bowls Association umpiring certificates.

Members are asked to support the social committee dance on November 6, tickets being available from S. Yates and A. Molloy junior.

Pat on the back to Colin Mannerling and Doug Strick, who were winner and runner-up in the Licence Darts Association.

PAUL CURRAN BAGS TREBLE IN LITTLE ATHLETICS

Paul Curran of St. Mary's Little Athletic Club, holder of the Victorian Record for the boys under 10 400 metres, competed brilliantly on Saturday, taking out a treble in winning all events contested by boys under 11.

Paul won the long jump with a leap of 3.65 metres, hurled the discus 18.56 metres and slithered down the 60 metre hurdle track heavily with rain, in the fast time of 11.2 secs.

Paul deadheaded in this event with team mate G. Bone.

Paul Curran has always shown outstanding athletic abilities and his performances this year have clearly demonstrated that contestants in his own age group, both at Centre and Victorian level will have to show equally outstanding abilities to have a chance of defeating him this season.

Councillor Ray Richards, president of the Altona Centre, presented record certificates to a number of children who have already either broken or equalled existing Centre Records.

ALTONA CRICKET

B GRADE

Play started an hour and a half late, and Altona declared 53 runs in front. Time was against Altona forcing an outright win, as Royal Park were not dismissed until stumps.

David Hitchcock had an excellent match, with 66 and 3 for 4. Alan Willett also had a good match with 25 n.o. and 2 for 8.

Scores for Altona's first innings were: G. Wilson C. Mackley (31), J. Joyce b. Jackson (0), D. Hitchcock lbw Hughes (66), J. Dellar St. Witson (16), I. Hughes St. Pritchard (13), A. Willett n.o. (25). Altona declared at 5 for 154.

Mackley scored 24 for Royal Park, before being caught by Willett, and Jackson was the second top scorer with 18. The team was all out for 80.

For Altona, Hitchcock took 3/4, Naughton 1/28, Michael 3/25, and Willett 2/8.

C GRADE

On a wicket, which, although wet and slippery, still played truly, Altona batsmen Peter Mildenhall and Graeme Hosken resumed Altona's first innings at 5 wickets for 133.

Both batsmen were untroubled by Middle Park's attack, and quickly consolidated Altona's already strong position. With the score at 164, Mildenhall, after showing a good deal of promise, was dismissed for 22. He was quickly followed by Gray, Ewen, Stephenson and Healey to leave the team all out for 179, a lead of 103 on the first innings.

Altona, anxious to gain outright points, were on their toes as Healey and Gray opened the bowling. Their reward was quick as Gray broke through for two wickets.

A subborn partnership of 39 held Altona up for some time, but then a good catch by Russell Ewen and an equally good run-out by Ray Evans and Neville Healey virtually sealed the game for Altona.

Both Healey and Gray bowled well, and together with Henry Osowski, who needed only three alls to take the last wicket, they collected the last six wickets between them for only 23 runs, thus giving Altona victory by an innings and 19 runs. Wicket takers in Middle Park's second innings were Rodney Gray, 4/23, Neville Healey 3/23 and Henry Osowski 1/1.

UNDER 14

With only two rounds played, Altona are the only undefeated team.

This augurs well for a keenly contested season. In Saturday's games Leigh (40 n.o.) was the star with the bat while with the ball, both Hobbs and Sotney captured six wickets each. Saturday's results: Altona West 8 for 61 (Mitchell 12 n.o., Sotney 11, Hobbs 6 for 9, Sarros 3 for 19) defeated Altona High, 7 for 50 (Parkin 16, Hobbs 15, Symons 12 n.o., Sotney, 6 for 21). Seaholme 8 for 80 (Leigh 40 n.o., Douglas 13 n.o., Augustine 4 for 22, Mason 3 for 22) defeated Combined Churches 8 for 33 (Leigh 3 for 13).

Altona has good win in 'A' grade tennis

Altona's A grade team defeated Liston Esplanade by one game last Saturday.

After trailing all day they fought back to win the three mixed doubles and snatch victory.

Highlight of the match was the good form of Suzanne Keown, who moved up to the top team at the last moment.

A Reserve 1, which had suffered a string of narrow defeats, broke the ice with a great win over Kingsville. The best player for Altona was Ian Harrington, who was the only member of the team to win all his sets.

A Reserve 2 returned to the winning list after suffering a narrow defeat the previous week. With Wayne Thomas in fine form, Altona proved too strong for Yarraville.
